

It's Tough to be a Teen!

- Is your teen in trouble?
- How would you know?
- What's the newest threat?

Drugs Grades Bullies Dating Self image ...

Thursday,
March 24
7:30 p.m.
At the
DoubleTree
Hotel
455 S. Broadway
Tarrytown

FREE

Panel discussion for teens and parents with

- Dr. Marcia Nackenson, specialist in Adolescent Medicine at New York Medical College.
- Jennifer Spitz, LCSW, Social Worker at Solomon Schechter High School through "Partners in Schools," a program of WJCS and UJA-Federation of NY.
- Beth Thompson, LCSW, Manager of "Margaret's Place," part of Joe Torre's "Safe at Home" Program administered by WJCS.

Voices and Choices

Sponsored by: JCC on the Hudson Partners in Caring*, Westchester Jewish Community Services, B'nai Brith Youth Organization, Westchester Jewish Council, DoubleTree Hotel, Rotary Club of the Tarrytowns, Greenburgh Hebrew Center, Woodlands Community Temple, Temple Beth Abraham, and UJA-Federation of New York.

Partners in Caring is a JCC program funded by UJA-Federation of New York, providing social work services to the Rivertown communities and local synagogues.

